RESEARCH EXPERIENCE

UNC-Chapel Hill, Gillings School of Global Public Health

Graduate Research Assistant

Chapel Hill, NC

Aug 2017 – Present

- Identified clinical characteristics and risk factors for campylobacteriosis among infants in Latin America.
- Estimated the association between early life antibiotic use and rotavirus vaccine immunogenicity among infants in low-and-middle-income countries.
- Explored methods to transport clinical trial findings to the general population.

Centre for Infectious Disease Research in Zambia

Lusaka, Zambia

Summer Intern

May 2019 – Jul 2019

- Developed a clinical tool for classifying diarrhea severity among children and compared performance against existing clinical tools for diarrhea severity and dehydration assessment.
- Estimated the incidence of Shigella and Escherichia coli among children under five in Lusaka.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Howard W. Odum Institute for Research in Social Science

Chapel Hill, NC

Statistical Consultant

Jan 2020 – Aug 2021

- Develop and communicate actionable strategies for clients across disciplines to solve data analysis, statistical, and programming problems in SAS, R, and Excel.

FHI Clinical

Durham, NC

Business Intelligence Intern

Jun 2020 – May 2021

- Compile reports on prospective clients and disease indications, with concomitant data analyses, to support internal organizational initiatives.
